State Official to Attend Awarding Church Contract

ARCHITECT ESTIMATES COST OF NEW CHURCH AT $35,000 TO $40,000

Word was received last week that Dr. J. P. Beason, president of the California Synod of United Lutheran Churches, will be in Ocean Beach on Monday, May 19, to be present at the awarding of the contract for construction of the new St. Peter's-by-the-Sea church, to be built at Sunset Cliffs Blvd. and Adair St. Final plans for the new building were announced by the architect, Joseph T. Joessler of 4831 Cape May Ave., on Tuesday this week and bids will be opened on May 19.

The loan to finance the church edifice will be negotiated through the Board of American Missions, United Lutheran Church, which has its headquarters in Philadelphia.

Mr. Joessler has revealed that published estimates of the cost of the structure were minimum figures as shown on the C. P. A. request, and he estimated that the building will probably cost between $35,000 and $40,000. "The church, to be of Roman Spanish design, will be one of the finest in San Diego, regardless of size," Mr. Joessler said.

A native of Switzerland, Mr. Joessler is a graduate of Zurich University and studied in Germany, Italy, Spain, Cuba and Mexico, prior to coming to this country in 1925. A resident of Ocean Beach since 1932, Mr. Joessler is now working as supervising architect for the Catalina Foothill Estates, in addition to his work on the St. Peter's church. He is associated with Louis H. Bodmer of San Diego.

Authority on Amer. Indians to Address Missionary Society

Mrs. W. R. Vaughn of the Speakers Bureau of the Southwestern Baptist Association will be the speaker at the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the Ocean Beach Baptist church, Friday, May 23, 2 p. m. in the church parlor.

Mrs. Vaughn's topic is to be the "American Indian." She is an authority on her subject, since she has visited the Bacone Indian College in Oklahoma and the Indian Work in Aubrey, Calif. Mrs. Vaughn also has a collection of Indian curios, which she will display.

The quiz for the April Missions will be used as part of the program. This is the first meeting over which the new officers will preside. The new president is Mrs. Jack Salesky; vice-president, Mrs. Earl Taylor; secretary, Mrs. Roy Newman; and treasurer, Mrs. Cleo Close.

"Come Rain or Shine," Point Loma High Senior Play, Proves to Be Good Comedy

(By Claire Hollobaugh)

"You have to be firm with women," was the code of Harry Shannon in the light comedy "Come Rain or Shine," presented by the Point Loma Senior class Thursday and Friday, May 8 and 9, at Point Loma High auditorium. This three-act comedy concerned the complex efforts of a group of overgrown bobby soxers who attempt to produce a play, with the usual clash of personalities.

The members of the conservative Grayson family are picked out by Rosemary March, granddaughter of the wealthy Julia March, as the ideal dramatic talent for a play which is to be produced near their summer cottage. The resulting bedlam within the Grayson family, the confused loves of the younger set and the constant rehearsing of the would-be "thespians" gave to the play a hilarious tone. Harry Shannon, who played the most stormy and convincing role, that of the harassed Mr. Grayson, carried the day through three acts very cap-

MEET YOUR OCEAN BEACH NEIGHBORS

A. G. Bruce

(Studio of the Cliffs)

This week we present a man who is an Ocean Beach booster by preference, since he chose this community as his home town after seeing just about every city, town and hamlet in the country. A. G. Bruce, one of San Diego's leading auctioneers and Ocean Beach Lions clubber, has led a very colorful life and we are proud to have him with us.

Born in Cumberland, Md., on March 11, 1872, Mr. Bruce showed signs of wanderlust early, running away from home when he was 13. By the time he was 20, he had crossed the continent eight times and had traveled from Detroit to New Orleans four times. During these early years of traveling, he earned a living as a pastry baker and "a little auctioneering" on the side. His first auctioneering was a sale made in Julian, Calif., to which he traveled from San Diego by stage coach. At that time he was 14 years old. When he was 20, A. G. settled down for a time in Weatherford, Texas, where he attended a business school. A year later he was working at the Pullman Hotel in Hot Springs, Ark., as a pastry cook. After six months in the kitchen, A. G. was graduated to night clerk, later to bookkeeper, and his next promo-

MR. BOWKER RETURNS FROM SCRIPPS HOSPITAL

Jim Bowker, manager of the Home Appliance Store, returned to his home, 4848 Niagara Ave., on May 6, after spending over two weeks in the Scripps Hospital in La Jolla. Mr. Bowker is reported to be doing "very well" and is now able to receive friends.

GRANDSON FOR LEHEWS

Announcement was made this week of the birth of a first son, Charles David, to Mr. and Mrs. George F. Heylman of San Diego. Young Charles is a grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Lehigh of 4412 Muir Ave., and great-grandson of Mrs. Rosa Wright of 4911 Narragansett Ave. He was born May 7 at Mercy hospital, weighing in at 7 pounds 2 ounces.

ably. Mr. Shannon was typical as the over-wrought, highly strung father of two active children. His emotional changes were quick but effective. The part of Agnes Holden, a "beachcomber" neighbor who was infatuated with Mr. Grayson's son, Glenn, was well done by Nancy Peterson. Though Miss Peterson's constant stage pacing was irritating to the audience at times, her stage presence was excellent and she gave the role all she had. Norma Ghio, as Mrs. Grayson, was quite convincing in her role, as was Arita Winston, who played the part of the spoiled Rosemary March. The young director, Dan Lyons, characterized by Dale Shoupe called for an easy going fellow and Mr. Shoupe was just that—another member of the cast with an abundance of stage presence.

Though some of the cues were slow on the pickup and the climax a little long in coming, the reception of the play was good, and the ending of the play left the audience asking for more. Miss Jewellea Brodie was faculty director.

tion made him manager of the hotel. Quite a step from pastry cook!

Later he went into the money lending business in Hot Springs and in 1895 he went to New York, where he entered the diamond business. After six months he went to work on the road for a wholesale diamond firm. During this time he traveled extensively, under considerably more comfortable circumstances than during his boyhood travels.

He began auctioneering in earnest and remained as a road representative for the New York Jobbers Association for seven years. Tiring of traveling, Mr. Bruce went to work for the Sile Auctioneering Company on Fifth avenue, New York's largest art auctioneering firm.

During his years in New York, Mr. Bruce had built a home in Coronado, Calif., for his two sons, Robert and Henry, as he had taken a fancy to the elegant San Diego weather during his travels and he wanted his boys to enjoy the healthful climate. He employed a housekeeper to look after the boys and visited them himself at six months intervals.

In 1920, Mr. Bruce's health became impaired and he had to retire for several years. It was at this time that he joined his sons in Coronado. After four years of relaxing in the California sunshine, A. G. went back into the auctioneering business and has been hard at it ever since.

In July, 1934, he married Mrs. Natalie Kemp of Madison, Wis., in Coronado. In September that year the Bruces chose Ocean Beach for their home, moving to their present address, 4930 W. Point Loma Blvd.

Mr. Bruce's two sons are both doing well for themselves—Robert is an attorney with the General Electric Company in Schenectady, N. Y., and Henry has a gold laboratory in San Diego.

Mr. Bruce is a prodigious reader, being especially fond of philosophy and art. Asked how he likes Ocean Beach, A. G. responded with a grin, "This is the town I want to die in."

Services Today for Mrs. Mary Hicks

Funeral services will be held today (Friday) for Mrs. Mary Hicks, who died Wednesday morning in a local hospital. Services will be at 2 p. m. in the Benbough Mortuary.

Born in Candor, N. Y., on April 7, 1877, Mrs. Hicks had been a resident of Ocean Beach for seven years, coming here with her family from Binghamton, N. Y. She had been employed at Scott's Curtain Store in Ocean Beach and the Benbough Furniture company in San Diego. She was a member of the San Diego Woman's club and the Methodist Boulevard church in Binghamton.

Surviving are her husband, Oscar Hicks, of 4983 1/2 Newport Ave.; three daughters, Mrs. Frances Graham of San Diego, Mrs. Velma Potts of Montrose, Pa., and Mrs. Paul Myers of Binghamton, N. Y.; and six grandchildren.

OCEAN BEACH JR. WOMEN TO CO-HOSTESS COUNTY FEDERATION "PLAY DAY"

The Ocean Beach, Mission Beach and Pacific Beach Junior Women's clubs are in charge of the County Federation of Junior Women's Clubs annual "Play Day," to be held Saturday, May 17, from 10:30 a. m. to 3 p. m., in Oceanside. Club women and their children will meet at the Oceanside picnic grounds, near the pier. Each member is to bring a lunch for her family and the Mission Beach club will serve lemonade and coffee. In the afternoon games for the children will be held in the stadium.

The Ocean Beach club is in charge of reservations and will help conduct the games. The Pacific Beach group will organize the games and furnish prizes. Reservations are to be left with Mrs. Fred Gentles of 4343 Narragansett Ave., B-6194.

Beauty Quest

Are you the most beautiful girl in Ocean Beach? Do you have grace, intelligence, poise and stage presence?

Well, don't keep your talents hidden. Your community wants your help.

You are eligible for the "Fairest of the Fair" contest at this year's San Diego County Fair, opening June 27 and running through July 6.

This is a County-wide competition—and not a bathing beauty contest by any means.

Winner will be awarded a contract to appear in the "Fiesta-tacade"—the Fair's big nightly stage show.

Entry blanks can be obtained at the Strand theater in Ocean Beach.

Preliminary judging for this community will be held the night of Thursday, June 5, 1947, at the Strand theater.

Norma Jean Helps Texas Sheepman With Lamb Crop

ENCOUNTERS ARMADILLO ON CROSS COUNTRY TRIP

In this week's installment of the Norma Jean Belloff travelogue, Miss Belloff describes her adventures on a Texas sheep ranch. In case any of our readers don't already know, Norma Jean is at present cycling her way through Texas on a cross-country bicycle trip.

Excerpts from her letters to her mother, Mrs. F. H. Belloff of 2111 Mendocino St., follow:

Texas (east of Sanderson)

March 22

Mother, How the world appears sure depends a lot on which of its sides you see and from what angle you are looking. Yesterday Texas was dull, monotonous, barren miles of nothing—today it's a pageant of beauty. My appreciation of nature had somehow slipped almost away from me. I was hurrying from town to town imagining the wonders of the gulf and northern states, blind to the glory all around me.

I'm glad the world is lovely today and hope it never looks again as it did yesterday.

Last night I slept in an empty house on a sheep ranch (with permission), rats nearly carried me off.

Mar. 23, Sunday—I was invited to stop a few days with the Holmes family, who have a sheep ranch. Mrs. Holmes dressed me

Large Crowds See Prizes Awarded at Virgil's Market

The mobs of people you have seen on upper Newport avenue the past two Saturday nights were not lynching anybody—they were there in hopes of winning the $50 cash award and two $5 grocery awards given away each week at Virgil's Market. A crowd estimated at over a thousand gathered on May 3 to see Kenneth Lyons Sr. of 4440 Brindisi St. win the $50, and Mrs. Eldon Lewellen of 4684 Saratoga Ave. and Thomas E. Jones of 4655 Granger St. each win a $5 grocery order. Helping Mr. Swoboda with the distribution was little Linda Slaughter.

On the evening of May 10 an equally large crowd assembled and H. W. Riese of 4777 Newport Ave. proved to be the $50 winner. R. J. Boynton of 2497 Wolcott St. and Louise Davids of 3992 Hickock St. each took home the grocery orders. Johnny Foster helped Mr. Swoboda. Both Johnny and Linda were rewarded for their assistance with a box of candy.

Both events have proved to be such crowd attractors that they nearly blocked the avenue in front of the market.

On Walking Trip to San Francisco

EVELYN STRADLEY, Ocean Beach girl who is on a walkathon to San Francisco, is shown in front of the home of her parents, Capt. and Mrs. E. E. Stradley of 1966 Froude St. When last heard from Miss Stradley was at Big Bear Lake. Her letters tell of an abundance of rainfall in the mountains, necessitating her selecting only the thickest pine trees to sleep under. In one letter to her parents, Miss Stradley related, "After 12 hours of hiking yesterday I have been quite sleepy all day. My toes are in wonderful condition, thanks to these marvelous shoes. The only trouble with the pack is that it's uncomfortably hot on my back." The News will carry detailed accounts of Evelyn's adventures on the open road in future issues.

CLYDE WRIGHT POST GIVES BENEFIT BINGO PARTY

The Clyde A. Wright Post, American Legion, held a bingo party at the Ocean Beach Woman's clubhouse Thursday evening, May 15, with a large crowd in attendance. The proceeds will go toward buying a uniform for one of the musicians in the Lloyd Steinhof American Legion band. Commander W. L. Brittain was in charge of the party. Working with the post members on preparations for the affair were representatives of the Auxiliary.

Letters to the Editor

May 12, 1947.

Dear Sirs:

The following might be of interest to your readers.

The Legislative Auditor proposes to equalize assessments throughout the State. For instance, a comparable property in Los Angeles might now be assessed for half as much as one in San Diego, penalizing San Diego residents when it comes to getting certain State Funds.

The budget is apparently going through with less than the hoped-for 10 per cent reduction. The Senate has approved it for about 640 million and then we allow perhaps another 200 million extra for appropriations, you will see that it is something to worry about. This situation will be helped somewhat by the economy being exercised in Congress, since this will result in fewer State-matching funds.

Housing seems to be subject to less hazard from low rent, slum clearance, and community projects. There are several bills which

O. B. GIRL GETS PILOTS LICENSE ON 17TH BIRTHDAY

Marian Mishler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mishler of 2090 Sunset Cliffs Blvd., was awarded her private pilots license Friday, May 9, on her 17th birthday. Joe Hart, CAA examiner, awarded the license at Pikes airport. Miss Mishler is a student at Point Loma High school.

KANEYUKI NAMED "STAR OF MONTH" BY FOUNDATION

Paul Kaneyuki, Point Loma High school's star pitcher, was accorded the honor of athletic "Star of the Month" by the Breitbard Athletic Foundation, it was announced this week by Judge Joe L. Shell, board chairman. Young Kaneyuki has spearheaded the league-leading Pointer ball team, in this year's spectacular victories, which included the winning of the recent Pomona 20-30 Club Invitational Tournament.

The formal presentation of the trophy will be made at a later date by Captain Percy Robbins, U. S. M. C., a member of the board of the Breitbard Foundation.

Mission Bay C. of C. Adopts By-Laws At Monday Meet

J. BEARDSLEY APPOINTED TREASURER TO SUCCEED A. HUBBARD, RESIGNED

At the Monday night meeting of the Mission Bay Chamber of Commerce in the auditorium of the Ocean Beach Elementary school, the charter and by-laws of the organization were read by Steve Young, president, and were passed on by the membership.

Mr. Young received unanimous approval of his appointment of Joe Beardsley as treasurer of the organization, to succeed Arthur Hubbard, who had resigned because of business interference with his duties.

The major part of the by-laws were approved as read, although opposition was encountered on the provision that dues be upped to $5 per year. By vote of the membership, this provision was stricken out and the dues remain at $1 per year.

Other topics of discussion included the work being done by the Chamber's fishing pier committee on promoting resumption of construction on the pier at the foot of Del Monte Ave. Carl Schroder, a member of this committee, reported that considerable headway had been made toward getting an appropriation for the pier included in this year's city budget. He emphasized that, should the appropriation not be included this year, it is likely no further work would be done on the pier until a year from now. Marshall Malcolm reported that city officials had indicated great interest in the completion of the pier.

Another item of discussion was the possibility of the city acquiring the land at the north end of the present Mission Bay bridge. This land is now held by private parties and a move is under way to condemn the land, so that the city may purchase it for use in the proposed Mission Bay project.

A report was made on the reaction to Chamber pressure to keep the Azure Vista housing units in government ownership. Hope was expressed that legislation may be enacted in Washington which will provide for retention of these units by the present occupants.

Kiwanians See Movie Travelog Of United States

The Ocean Beach Kiwanis club was entertained at the Tuesday night meeting by a movie travelog showing the many National Parks and other points of interest in the United States. This sound, color movie was presented by Herb Duhrsen, of the Admiral Travel Service in San Diego. The film depicted travel by air, train, bus and private automobile. Program chairman for the evening was Homer Gravelle.

Among the guests were Ben Spalding and Bill Copeland, guests of Bill Mortlin; Joe Foss of El Centro, guest of Massey Horton; and Bob Dent of the East San Diego club, who is district lieutenant governor. A board of directors meeting followed the general meeting.

Zookie to Carry Ocean Beach Colors In Turkey Turf Classic at County Fair

The long-legged hope of Ocean Beach, a bronze turkey known as Zookie, is now undergoing a strenuous training routine at the Roy Hammond residence, 4485 Pescadero Ave. Zookie will be the Ocean Beach entry in the Turkey Sweepstakes at the County Fair this summer. He or she (still undetermined) will be jockeyed in the 100-yard sprint by Don Roy Hammond, Dana Junior High school student, who at last reports was laid up with an infected toe. However, Zookies' road work will not be neglected during the jockey's incapacity, as Don Roy's father, Roy Hammond is carrying on in fine style, running the turkey out of the neighbor's yard at intervals.

The fact that Mr. Hammond happens to be secretary of the Chula Vista Chamber of Commerce, which organization is also sponsoring a turkey speedster in the sweepstakes, will not dim the chances for Ocean Beach's feathered Scabsquirt, for Mr. Hammond has vowed to uphold the fair name of Ocean Beach and not sabotage Zookie.

The bird, while it has spells of droop, has shown signs of developing into a turf tornado, and, if appetite is any evidence, is enjoying the best of fowl health.

The turkey was delivered three weeks ago to the office of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce by County Fair representatives, and was quickly whisked away to its present training grounds. Dick Hilmen, C. of C. vice-president, who is rapping the gavel in the absence of Frank Swan, has warned that too much running makes a turkey tough. "Mr. Hilmen is apparently taking the long view and may have designs on Zookie," reported a local authority on C. of C. vice-presidents.

LOOK WHAT A GOOD CAST CAUGHT!

When the California Sportsmen's and Vacation Show opens at Mission Beach Amusement Center, May 10-18 for a nine-day run, Dick Miller (right) San Diego's own world champion fly and bait-caster, will be a feature attraction of the "Parade of Outdoor Champions." Here Miller explains some of his casting technique to film star Fred McMurray who, in addition to picture casting, is one of the better amateur casters in the Los Angeles area.

up in her clothes when I asked to go to church with them. Sunday evening there was an evangelist trailoring. He showed science movies. The Dryden people were awed. I slept on the porch of an old house—first warm night—stopped using extra blanket.

March 24, Monday—I fed lambs milk from 7-up bottles, just like in the picture books (big thrill). I helped Mr. H. deliver milk, held the lambs in my arms while Mr. H. cut off tails, marked by clipping ears and castrated; got blood from head to foot, and cactus pricklers in my arms from the sheeps wool. Luscious meals, country butter!

March 25, Tuesday—Left Holmes with completely clean pack, went about eight miles, hiked in the brush, sunbathed, read my bible, gathered the cactus I sent June, found an underground stream by a small vacuum hole in dry, rock river bed. Rode 'till 10:00 at night in the light from sliver of a moon. Up and down, up and down—huge dry gullies. Slept in a bank by the road—peanut butter and cheese sandwiches.

March 26, Wednesday. Rode 9:00 to 3:00. At noon I was at Langtry. The air warm and sweet from blossoming Spanish dagger. Later I fought a wind. Wished I owned one of the sleek Texas yearlings, tossing their heads in the meadows. Slept between highway and train tracks—like to hear the passing trains.

March 27, Thursday—Rode 9 to 4, Shumla to Del Rio—crossed the Pecos and Del Rio rivers, saw my first brilliant red cardinal. He looked like an ocotillo blossom, a tongue of flame on a branch where he sang. Lavender mountain laurel perfumed my way, saw my first scarlet hedge hog flowers (a cactus). I climbed a cliff to touch them—saw five men duck into a culvert carrying gunny sacks over their shoulders and guessed they'd been stealing wool.

I visited Villa Cuna, Mexico—went home with two Mexican women I met. I had an awful time trying to get the Mexican family to understand my high school Spanish. They stood in a circle about me and watched my every move. That night I slept on the floor of their mud hovel, with the other women. I made a fast friend of a girl about my age, Ophelia Martiniz; she wanted to travel with me. With the help of the immigration officer, I had a long talk with her.

March 28, Friday—Wrote letters in the library, bought Mexican candy, mailed it as Easter gifts. Got acquainted with Mrs. Mertz in Del Rio; learned Del Rio is the wool center for surrounding wool and mohair ranches, and that mohair is from long-haired goats.

March 29, Saturday—Spent the morning weeding Mertz's lawn—helped clean house. Mrs. Mertz took me to her cabin on Lake Walk. I went fishing in Devils River (caught one catfish).

March 30, Sunday—Rode 8:30 to 6:00, Del Rio to Clinex. At San Felipe Springs there were tons of water bubbling from the ground. Del Rio city water pipes stick right into the center of the bubbling water. Passed many wild flowers, carpet of grass under light green trees—went barefooted—front wheel out of line, stopped to fix it, man in convertible passed, turned around and came back—warned me against men, said I ought to carry a gun. He helped me fix my wheel, wished me luck and went on his way to California.

Spent that night in a goat pasture, next morning I was fascinated by ants harvesting green leaves. I spent hours trailing and watching them.

I saw an armored armadillo and at first I didn't know whether to watch or run.

(Norma left San Antonio April 28, and rode north through Austin. On May 1 she lost her bike in the swirling rapids of the Texas Colorado river. May 8 she mailed a card from Houston. Has another bike and is on her way. Next week's installment will tell more about her escape from the river, at which time she lost her bike.)

(Note from Mrs. Belloff:—In next week's column Norma will describe an adventure she had just beyond Austin. Please drop a card to the News and tell them if you enjoy Norma's letters. Thank you. Norma's Mom.)

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Golden of 4926 Del Monte Ave. will leave May 23 for a three-week vacation in South Dakota. They will visit relatives there.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Kinsman have sold their Point Loma home to Mr. and Mrs. Penn, who are in business in Ocean Beach and San Diego. The Kinsmans are moving to the Balboa Park district.

New Books Arrive
At Local Library

Those who would more clearly understand the problem of displaced persons in Europe will be glad to know that I. F. Stone's "Underground to Palestine," arrived this week at the Ocean Beach Branch, San Diego Public Library.

The story of a newspaper man who flew to Europe to follow the long, heart-breaking route of dispossessed Jews to Palestine, "Underground to Palestine," gives readers a new slant on the importance of the Palestine problem.

Other new books announced by Miss Margaret Rankin, librarian, were: "An Essay on Morals," by Philip Wylie; "How To Become a Policeman," by J. C. Chiotis; "Genetics and the Origin of Species," by T. G. Dobzhansky; "Official Guide Book of the San Diego Zoo," "Vinland the Good," by Nevil Shute; "Three-Minute Encyclopedias," by W. F. Miksch; "Plays of Anton Chekov," by A. F. DOG-GONE NICE SPORTSMENS' SHOW FEATURE

SHORT STORY

Young Blade

By GLORIA FERSCHT

DANNY DALE, his teeth still chattering from the wet chill of the night, twisted his head on the soft warm pillow in an effort to speak. "Mom, I'm sorry, honest I am. I couldn't help it."

The tall blonde boy pulled the warm covers more closely around him. Two dimples, which he had not outgrown during his 15 years, were even now visible in his cheeks among several scratches and a deep gash slightly below his right eye.

It was not unusual for Danny to wander off by himself, especially when he was angry or disturbed. He often spent the entire day swimming or boating in the lake, but he was never gone overnight. At one hour past midnight, Mr. Hale and a small searching party had found Danny lying on the beach, cold and wet.

Dr. Scott spoke softly to Danny as he applied an anesthetic to the boy's bruised face. "Are you warm, Danny?"

There was a curt reply. "Sure." The experienced country doctor could see at once that Danny was straining himself to keep the tears back. "What's the matter, son? You can trust old Doc Scott, and surely you have no secrets from your parents. Where have you been? What have you been doing?"

Danny pulled himself up and leaned against the bedstead. His natural color was slowly coming to

TO HONOR NEW AMERICANS... Federal, state, local and private agencies have been asked by President Truman to observe May 18 as "I Am An American Day" and to hold commemorative exercises. The ceremonies will be designed to "help our citizens better to understand their privileges and responsibilities as participants in our representative democracy, to the end that world peace and domesticity may be attained and perpetuated." The celebration is an annual affair to honor those who have become naturalized and those who have become of age during the year.

DIVORCE DISCUSSED AT CYO MEET WEDNESDAY NITE

"The Catholic Viewpoint on Divorce" was the topic of Father Bradley's talk to the senior C. Y. O. when it met in the parish hall of the Sacred Heart church Wednesday night, May 14. Following the talk there was a round-table discussion in which all present participated. The senior C. Y. O. was recently reorganized to include young people of 18 to 25. A junior C. Y. O. has been formed for all those of 14 to 17 years inclusive. Following each of the meetings there is a social hour.

Mr. and Mrs. John David Mitchell of 4955 Del Monte Ave. are the proud parents of a baby girl born April 19.

A Cure for Criticism

HOW much good does the average person see about him? What is our capacity for recognizing good? Do not most of us rather readily observe the evil and overlook the good?

Christ Jesus discriminated between the mortal and immortal, the sin and the sinner. He rebuked the sin, but forgave the sinner, thereby healing and saving the sick and sinful. In the eighth chapter of his gospel, John relates the incident of the sinful woman whom the scribes and the Pharisees brought to Jesus to be judged. He says: "Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground." When one by one they slunk away, "convicted by their own conscience," as John says, Jesus compassionately spoke to the woman, "Hath no man condemned thee? . . . Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more."

How true it is that each of us has a great need to correct his own thinking and actions; and to the extent that his self-examination is honest, he finds no time or inclination to indulge in criticism of others. Right reasoning from the basis of spiritual truth will clear out of consciousness the ugly habit of harshly criticizing others. Honest analysis of one's own thinking may reveal the fact that what one dislikes and condemns in his neighbor is the very fault of which he himself is guilty. The writer had a rather amusing experience illustrative of this point. Upon retiring quite late one night, he heard a radio going almost loud enough for him to distinguish the words of the program, and loud enough for him to note the change from speaking to music. It continued until he finally fell asleep wondering why his neighbor was so inconsiderate of others. Awakening very early the next morning, he was surprised to hear the radio going again. What was his chagrin to find that it was his own radio in his own room!

Paul understood this tendency of mortals to judge others. He wrote (Romans 2: 1), "Thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that judgest; for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things." In an article in "Miscellaneous Writings" entitled "Obedience," Mary Baker Eddy says (p. 118): "Be of good cheer; the warfare with one's self is grand; it gives one plenty of employment, and the divine Principle worketh with you, — and obedience crowns persistent effort with everlasting victory." — The Christian Science Monitor.

Honored by Dancing Masters of America

GLADYS BOWEN, of the Gladys Bowen Studio of Ocean Beach, who was recently selected as one of 20 dancing directors who will teach 500 other dancing instructors at the national convention of the Dancing Masters of America in Detroit this summer. Miss Bowen was the only teacher so honored from the West Coast.

O. B. Junior Women Receive State Award For Legislation

(By Marian Kretzler)
Mrs. Harold Depew and Mrs. Lawrence Tokar, delegates of the Ocean Beach Junior Woman's club, have returned from the statewide convention of Junior Women, which was held in San Francisco, May 9 and 10. They proudly brought with them the state award for outstanding legislative work done by the local organization. Each month of the current club year has witnessed some accomplishment in legislative activity and civic betterment.

That Junior Women's clubs have become important factors in national organization was attested by the fact that, during their convention, they were addressed by outstanding speakers. Hence, the local young women returned with a broader vision of club activity, and inspiring enthusiasm features their reports of the convention.

New Jersey Juniors bought and paid for 16 ambulances during the war. Florida purchased three iron lungs, while Kentucky is sponsoring international scholarships, one of which is already active. Virginia has gone international, organizing a Juniors club in England and busy with those for other countries.

The Woman's Emergency Home at Yountville, California, is the only project of its kind on the west coast. It affords temporary shelter for those new to the area, helps them to jobs and adjustment, and assists those wishing to return home.

Teen-age dances have been organized in various California districts under Juniors guidance, and substantial aid has been given the Victorville hospital.

One hundred thirty-five delegates attended the San Francisco convention. New state officers were elected with Margaret Winter of Los Angeles as president.

The summer conference of Junior Women's clubs will be held at Laguna Beach June 20 and 21. It is expected that a large delegation from San Diego in general and Ocean Beach in particular, will attend this important conclave.

Christian Science Theme

"Mortals and Immortals" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. This statement of Paul to the Romans is the Golden Text: "The earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God."

Jesus asserts in John's Gospel, "I am the light of the world; he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go. He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God."

Altar Society to Be Hostess to S. D. Catholic Women

The San Diego Deanery Council of Catholic Women will install new officers for the next five years, at the luncheon to be held Monday, May 19, at the Sacred Heart Catholic church of Ocean Beach. The out-going and in-coming officers will be seated at the main table. Out-going officers are as follows: president, Mrs. Vivian O'Toole; first vice-president, Mrs. Edward Mulvey; second vice-president, Mrs. Nicholas Martin. Re-elected to their respective offices are: Treasurer, Mrs. Katherine Isaacson, and Recording Secretary, Mrs. Paul Reiss. New officers: President, Mrs. Fred Gloor; first vice-president, Mrs. Michael Murphy; second vice-president, Mrs. K. L. Jensen.

The program of the day will feature Dr. and Mrs. Peter J. Schneemann. Dr. Schneemann will sing, accompanied by her husband.

Junior Women to See Original Play At Monday Meeting

The May meeting of the Ocean Beach Junior Woman's club, to be held Monday evening at the Woman's Clubhouse, will feature a one-act comedy, "That's All for the Present" written by Bob Brazzell, young Ocean Beach dramatist who is attending State College. The cast will consist of Mrs. Fred Gentles as the mother, Mrs. James Stevens as one of the daughters, Miss Mary Brazzell as the other daughter, and Bob Brazzell as the son. Mrs. Carl T. Oberg is directing the play and will be program chairman for the evening.

Other entertainment will be provided by the dancers of the Gladys Bowen Studio. Mrs. George Combs will accompany. Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Edward Dennison, Mrs. Bruce Smith, Mrs. Ralph Greer and Mrs. James Stevens.

The June meeting, to be held on the 16th, will feature the installation of Mrs. Fred Gentles as new president of the club. Mrs. James Stevens, outgoing president, will preside at next Monday's meeting.

The club members plan a dinner-dance for the evening of May 31, at the Shalimar club.

Kiwani-Annes to Hear Talk on Hair Styling Tuesday

R. T. Barrett of the Barrett Beauty Shop in Pacific Beach, will be the featured speaker at the regular meeting of the Kiwani-Annes, Tuesday, May 20, following the dinner at 6:30 and the business meeting.

Woman's Club Flower Show Provides Fine Display of Ocean Beach Horticultural Art

(By Virginia Lambert)

The annual May breakfast and flower show of the Ocean Beach Woman's club was held May 8 at the clubhouse. Over 70 women attended the breakfast. Chairman was Mrs. C. A. Baker and her committee consisted of Mrs. G. E. Gordon, Mrs. E. A. Kineman, Mrs. D. S. Marshall and Mrs. L. C. Near.

When I arrived in the early afternoon the business meeting was in progress with Mrs. Lloyd N. Davis, club president, presiding. The clubhouse was like walking into a florist shop. The room was lavishly with flowers and the air was sweet with their perfume. Shortly after my arrival the ladies sang "Happy Birthday" in honor of Mrs. S. M. Kyde, who was celebrating her 73rd birthday. Mrs. B. H. Nielsen, new president-elect, gave a brief acceptance speech and thanked the ladies for the honor they had bestowed on her.

Following the business meeting, the winners of the flower show were announced. For the classification of roses, winners were Mrs. W. Hansen and Mrs. A. Dumont; carnations: Mrs. G. B. Kenline and Mrs. C. A. Baker; formal arrangement: Mrs. E. D. Buffaloe and Mrs. W. H. Valentine; miniature arrangement: Mrs. E. D. Buffaloe and Mrs. C. O. Woodland; sweet peas: Mrs. G. B. Kenline and Mrs. David Wasserman; petunias: Mrs. C. O. Woodland; mixed bouquet: Mrs. W. H. Valentine; plain bouquet: Mrs. B. H. Nielsen; snap dragons: Mrs. C. O. Woodland; centerpiece: Mrs. L. N. Davis and Mrs. Joe Beardsley; special arrangement: Mrs. C. W. Parks; vase arrangement: Mrs. S. M. Kyde; pansies: Mrs. J. McGarvey and Mrs. Frances Neill; tropical arrangement: Mrs. M. Ehlers; geraniums: Mrs. L. N. Davis; hibiscus: Mrs. L. C. Near; patriotic arrangement: Mrs. H. E. Crawford.

The flowers were held up for inspection and each winner was given a selected prize. Following the flower show the ladies were invited to spend the remainder of the afternoon playing cards.

Judges for the flower show were Mrs. C. H. Wooley, Mrs. Lawrence Kretzler and Mrs. C. W. Early. The flower show was under the direction of the chairman, Mrs. J. J. Hornung, and her committees. In charge of arrangements were Mrs. E. D. Buffaloe and Mrs. G. B. Kenline. The committee in charge of prizes consisted of Mrs. W. H. Valentine and Mrs. David Wasserman.

SCIENTIFIC REFRIGERATION FIRST brought to the West by ACME 65 years ago

A great new era came to brewing back in the 80's with the invention of mechanical refrigeration. And ACME was the first to bring this "scientific wonder" to the West, with the installation of the first refrigeration machine to be installed west of the Mississippi. Thus, by scientifically controlled temperatures at every step in its production, ACME Beer's tangy flavor and sparkling refreshment are always the same. Remember: ACME Sells Out First . . . get yours early.

Children of three groups appeared in a program today (Friday) in recognition of "I Am an American" Day. Mr. Grant's sixth graders gave talks that were outgrowths of class discussion. Miss Norman's group gave two numbers in choric verse, "Respect the Flag" and "The American Flag." Singing of the fourth verse of "The Star-Spangled Banner" followed. Mrs. McCarrey's fifth grade children presented "Song of America," a pageant of America's history, told in speech and song. The Bay Sportsman

By Francis Hersey

Howdy Folks: Of the utmost importance to all of you who like to go hunting or those of you who just like to get out and ride around in the "back country" is Assembly Bill 1952 enacted by the State Legislature. This bill provides the State power to use money from the Fish and Game funds to buy rights-of-way or easements across private property to public lands, whether State or Nationally owned. As it now stands many millions of acres of our lands are not available to us because a few stock-growing organizations hold a monopoly by owning or controlling surrounding land, thus making it impossible for the public to gain access to the public lands which by law belong to all of us. I say it is long past time that a few cattle barons in our state can tell us where we can go on our own land, the land we pay taxes on every year of our lives. This monopoly must be broken up or we the people will lose one of our greatest heritages. The stock growers monopoly has a very strong organization, a smooth working lobby in our state capital and plenty of money to work with. The only way we can beat them and get our legal rights is to write our state legislatures, demanding the passage of this bill No. 1952 . . . if you don't, and the "Smoothies" beat this thing down your throat . . . don't say you did not have the warning!

Poachers beware! R. L. Simpson, supervisor of recreation for the water department, states that in the future any persons found guilty of fishing in closed reservoirs will face a fine of from $10 to $250 or six months in jail or both. Let us hope that this applies to the "big shots" as well as us "common fishermen." A vote of thanks is due Mr. Simpson for this action on his part, and if at any time I and the rest of the members of the Mission Bay Sportsman's club can be of any help in policing these closed lakes, we will be more than glad to help out.

Take note: Lakes closed to fishing: San Ieguito, Chollas, Upper Otay, El Capitan, San Vicente and Dulzura Conduit. Those open are: Morena, every day; and Lower Otay, Hodges and Barrett on Wednesdays, week-ends and holidays, from 6 a. m. until 6 p. m. Also open are Henshaw and Wohlford, two of the best fish producers in the county.

Local fishing in the ocean and bays is spotty, when you guys learn to cast a light bait far enough from the boat you will take yellowtail as they are out there just waiting, but they won't come up under the boat for you! The kelp bed runs are paying off with bottom fish; bass, halibut and other bottom fish being brought up in good quantities. Mission Bay has its share of croaker, bass and halibut and the sea trout are now coming into the bay so get out there and start casting. Several fine trout have been taken this past week.

Paul Graham and brother-in-law had lots of fun catching bluegill and crappie at Lake Rodriguez . . . he couldn't spell it either! And speaking of fishing in Lower California, Mexico to you, the fishing at Punta Banda has been plenty hot this past week, with yellowtail, barracuda, and bass filling the old sack right up to the top!

Don't forget to take in the sportsmen's show at Mission Beach, a $5 show for 90 cents!

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Weidel and daughter Tony of Compton, and Mr. and Mrs. Sparks Weidel and daughter Kathleen of Artesia Wells spent Mother's Day with Mrs. Catherine S. Weidel, 4725 Voltaire Ave., mother of Stewart and Sparks Weidel. The families had dinner at Imig Manor and then visited the San Diego Zoo.

Margie Rae, age 3, and Arthur Dennis, 1, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Perine of 4612 Lotus Ave. were baptized Sunday, May 11, at the morning service at the Point Loma Methodist church. Rev. Beismeyer performed the ceremony.

St. Stephens P. T. A. Hears Speech by Local F. B. I. Head

William Murphy, head of the San Diego office of the F. B. I., was the guest speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the St. Stephens P. T. A. held Thursday, May 8, at Wallace Hall. Mr. Murphy gave an interesting and enlightening talk on juvenile delinquency.

Nomination of officers for the school term next September were made and are as follows: President, J. D. Stephens and Rev. Phillip S. Harris; vice-president, Mrs. Gordon P. Hagberg and H. H. Kerns; secretary, Mrs. Spencer Rogers; treasurer, Thurl Knox; corresponding secretary, Mrs. H. S. Sutherland; historian, Mrs. Vern Searcy.

The scrap paper and magazine drive was announced for May 24. Anyone wishing to have papers picked up at their home call the school by Friday, May 23. Colored movies of the children at play on the school grounds were projected during the social hour that followed. Mrs. Thurl Knox was in charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Harold Owen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Thornley of 4612 Bermuda Ave., gave a Mother's Day dinner party in her home in San Diego in honor of her mother. The dinner featured a beautifully decorated Mother's Day cake, which was enjoyed by members of the immediate family.

What Makes Telephone Jobs Good Jobs

We believe telephone jobs are good jobs. But We'd like to tell you something about working conditions in the Telephone Company so you may decide for yourself. Good jobs are made up of a number of things—For example—

IS THE WORK STEADY?

Telephone pay checks come regularly—month in and month out. That's mighty important to wage earners who can plan ahead and have reasonable assurance of steady telephone work all through the year, and year after year.

ARE EXTRA PAYMENTS MADE FOR SUNDAYS WORKED?

Yes. Time and a half is Paid for Sunday work.

ARE EXTRA PAYMENTS MADE FOR HOLIDAYS WORKED?

Yes. Double time is paid for specified holidays worked. Full pay, with a few exceptions, is received by those who do not work these holidays. The holidays are New Years Day, Washington's Birthday, Memorial Day, Independence Day, Labor Day, Admission Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

ARE THERE PAID VACATIONS?

Certainly. After a year's service, employees get one week with pay—Two weeks after two years on the job—Three weeks after fifteen years.

ARE THERE SICKNESS BENEFITS, DEATH BENEFITS AND PENSIONS?

Yes, since 1913 and provided at no cost to the employee.

SICKNESS BENEFITS range from four weeks at full pay plus nine weeks at half pay for an employee with two years' service on up to a year at full pay for those with 25 years' service. The spectre of illness doesn't worry the telephone family quite as much as it would without this plan.

DEATH BENEFITS to dependents range from four months' pay for an employee with two years' service on up to a full year's pay for an employee of ten years or more.

PENSIONS—A funded plan paid for wholly by the company. Money accumulated over the past twenty years is held by the Bankers Trust Company as trustees. This money can be used for employees' pensions only. Each employee's pension is based on his rate of pay and length of service.

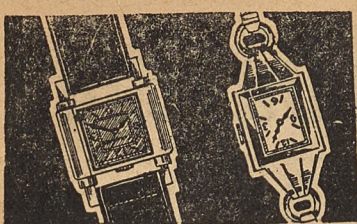

ARE CAFETERIAS PROVIDED?

Employee cafeterias, in larger offices, serving quality food at low prices—Attractive lounge rooms—Good surroundings—are just a few of the things that make telephone work pleasant.

More than 16,000 people here on the coast have liked their telephone jobs well enough to spend more than 15 years with the company.

These things coupled with a policy of paying wages that compare with those paid for jobs requiring similar skill and training in this territory have made it possible to attract good people to these good jobs.

TEEN CHATTER

By Alyce Rose

Tonight is the night! Just after sunset the lovely formal will come out, corsages will be delivered, and then at 8 o'clock Loman students will trek to their long-awaited ASB Ball—"Twilight Trance". The Thursday Club will be the scene of the gay doings and the music of Kenny O'Neal's popular orchestra will provide music. Highlight of the evening will be the coronation of a May Queen and her consort—who will be chosen at the ball. Bids to this always successful affair are being sold by commissioners and members of the social committee. In general charge of arrangements were social committee co-chairmen Caryl Buell and Peggy Malm.

Prom talk is foremost in the minds of Point Loma's junior class this week—their prom, "Undercurrent", has been set for May 23 in the school gym. According to general chairman Charlotte Henderson, an aquatic theme will be carried out in the decorations and in the entertainment. The floor show will feature the coronation of King Neptune and his mermaid! A well-known band has been signed for this affair—the $1,200 bids are being sold by junior class officers and members of the council.

Still another formal shindig to which local teensters are looking forward is the semi-annual ROTC Regimental Ball which is set for May 29 in the gym at San Diego High. Presented by ROTC officers of the city schools; this semi-formal affair will be open bid. Bids will be sold by all cadet officers.

Music-lovers are looking forward to Point Loma High School's annual spring concert which is scheduled for May 28-29 in the school auditorium. The May 29 performance will be followed by a reception in the girls' gym for members of the choral groups and their guests.

Club Chatter

Vivacious Kampus Katz really made a week-end to remember last week. Saturday the gals spent the day soaking up old sol's rays on Ocean Beach. After a scrumptious dinner at the home of prexy Ginny Clark, the hep-kittens trekked to a flicker ("Duel in the Sun") and then to Marian Mishers for a slumber session. Speaking of Marian... didja know that this blonde lass celebrated her 17th birthday recently by becoming the proud possessor of a pilot's license?

Quiggs have announced the following election returns: Mal Silva takes over the gavel as president; vice-president is Bud Wilson and Stan Jones takes over as secretary-treasurer; minister of propaganda is Bill Butcher.

Something new and different in the way of parties was the terrific affair tossed by JO's at Harry Bixby's home. Fellows and dates came as song titles—with a prize going to the most original get-up!

Latest additions to the steady list are Roy Creelman-Doris Braden and Cli Peterson-Caryl Buell. Bill Cisco and Darlene Gardner seem to have a lot in common too!

Yesterday was election day at Point Loma High School. Registered voters cast votes for fall term commissioners and girls' league officers in the primaries held in the auditorium. The final election is set for May 22 according to Carol Troendly, chairman of the election and eligibility committee. Another election on last week's calendar for Lomans was the one to choose next year's song and yell leaders.

The annual Girls' League presentation of an after-school assembly is scheduled for May 21 in the school auditorium. Miss J. Brodie's fourth and fifth period drama classes are presenting "The Lost Princess", "Knave of Hearts", "The First Dress Suit", and "A World Without Men". Leading roles in these productions will be taken by Marcia Drummet, Eugene Brown, Caryl Buell and Ethel Williams.

May 20 is the date for this year's student-teacher day at Point Loma. This annual event sponsored by the girls' league will give senior boys and girls who are interested in learning about teaching the opportunity to carry out the entire day's program of one teacher. Applications to be a student teacher are available in the office of the dean.

Looking ahead on the calendar for June we see that on June 2 Point Loma's tenth graders will present an "all-star" sophomore variety show and that on June 6 Zettz will hostess a closed-bid semi-formal at the San Diego Yacht Club—watch for these!

Once again we come to the end of our once-over of the doings of the "youngsters" around town... so, 'till next week, 'bye now—and don't forget, anyone having news for TEEN CHATTER call B-5745!

(Editor's Note—Most of the teenage social clubs, such as Jades, Kampus Katz, La Chere, Le Tiki, Prims, Trez-N, Zettz, J. O., Quiggs, Oaks, and Rebels, which appear in TEEN CHATTER are not sponsored or supervised by the school authorities. They are social in nature and operate outside of school under their own informal by-laws).

REVOLT IN SAN PEDRO

An "insurrection" is taking place in Los Angeles which should be watched with interest by the people of Ocean Beach and the other suburban communities which lie within the city limits of San Diego. The port town of San Pedro has been resorting to every legal procedure possible to break away from the city of Los Angeles and once more become an incorporated city, with its own government. Although this revolt has not yet succeeded, there is a good chance that it may.

Although we do not advocate that Ocean Beach follow the lead of San Pedro, we do believe that, if the latter community succeeds in freeing itself from the yoke of its big neighbor, it will probably mean that other California cities—San Diego included—will start looking to their outskirts and treating their suburban satellites with a little more respect.

Ocean Beach derives many advantages from being a part of the city of San Diego. However, there would also be many advantages in being a separate city. To have a city government which would be in direct touch with our community and its problems would indeed be a godsend. The ability to bring direct pressure on a city administration would mean that the people of Ocean Beach would have a better chance of obtaining the things for which they sometimes ask in vain. We have heard many charges, most of them unfounded perhaps, that Ocean Beach does not receive city expenditures and improvements commensurate with the city money paid by the thousands of people who live within the limits of this community (generally considered to follow the outlines of postal zone seven).

It cannot be denied that the beach areas are a great asset in making San Diego a popular vacation spot. They will become an even greater asset in the future.

Our opinion is that the city of San Diego has, in most instances, treated our community with consideration. We see no reason why they should cease to treat us so. However, should Ocean Beach ever become the "stepchild" which many localities insist we already are, it might be advantageous to be able to point to a successful "secession" precedent in San Pedro.

"TIME BOMBS" BY VIC

We need to make family life more businesslike and business more like a family.

Pride of country and love of country are oceans apart.

Our need is not for men who can prove their party right but who can put their country right.

Forget you're an employer or a worker and remember only you're a friend.

Think of the time we spend getting out of things we never should have gotten into.

Some men talk a great deal about very little. Great men talk little but say much. The authorities you quote depend upon the point of view you hold.

World destiny may sometimes hinge on one man's choice. That man may sometimes be you.

Mother: "Sonny, don't use such bad words."
Son: "Shakespeare used them."
Mother: "Well, don't play with him."

Proprietor—In this restaurant when you order a good cup of coffee you get the best cup of coffee in the world; if you order a fresh egg, you get the freshest egg in the world; if you—
Customer—I believe you. I ordered a small steak.

She: "May I join you, Groucho?"
He: "Am I coming apart?"

She: "Does your husband still find you entertaining?"
Her: "Not if I can help it."

"Who commands in your house?"
"We share the management. My wife bosses the servants and the children. I attend to the gold fish."

If it were not for listeners there would be no liars.

"Gonna be tough sledding today."
"How come?"
"No snow."

"Would you like to see a model home?"
"Glad to. What times does she quit work?"

Jack: "Got something in your eye?"
Jill: "No, I was just trying to look through my thumb."

The man who said one half of the world does not know how the other half lives never was on a rural phone line.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

Excerpts of the Ocean Beach News of 20 Years Ago
Saturday, May 16, 1927

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Manning spent the week-end at the Mission Inn, Riverside, where they went to attend a meeting of the Southern California Bankers' Association. Mr. Manning is manager of the Ocean Beach branch of the Bank of Italy.

The first community dance for the summer season will be held next Wednesday at 8 p.m., May 18, in the new Woman's Club hall, corner Newport Ave. and Abbott St. Music will be furnished by the Bungalow orchestra. Everybody most cordially invited to attend and have a good time.

Mrs. R. W. Chadwick of Warrington St., motored to San Francisco last Monday, accompanied by her daughter, Florence, and Mrs. Pauline Strady, sister of Mrs. Chadwick. They will return Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Chadwick's mother.

Mrs. R. F. Smith of Coronado Ave. has returned to her home after a month spent in Alpine.

The Friday Afternoon club met recently with Mrs. Thomas Mason at 4975 Del Monte Ave. The house was decorated with beautiful roses presented by Mrs. J. E. Hanford for the occasion. will provide some housing for veterans by revolving funds for purchase of Federal excess properties, etc.—sound, in my opinion—such as completing half-finished U. S. projects and perhaps some incentive for private construction of low rental units.

An Aircraft program holds considerable promise and I think it will benefit San Diego. Present outlook is for some sort of state agency without regulatory power as regards rates.

Mission Bay will merely get enabling legislation to provide for state-matching funds if, and when, the U. S. government appropriates its share.

The proposal to close areas to commercial fishing off San Diego has little chance.

I got through my bill for permitting marketing of Tuna over 150 pounds after July 1, 1947, when present law expires.

Thursday Club Plans Benefit Show for Orthopedic Hospital

The ladies of the Thursday Club, which has its clubhouse at 1224 Santa Barbara Ave., in Ocean Beach, are working hard on preparations for the "People Are Funny" radio show, to be presented at the Fox Theater on May 26, as a benefit performance, the proceeds to go to the Crippled Children's Orthopedic Hospital. The Thursday Club is sponsoring this benefit, and among the Point Loma ladies who are engaged in the preparations are Mrs. Harold Curtis, Club president; Mrs. Alvin H. Morrison, posters; Mrs. William Murray, program editor; Mrs. Elliot Colby, ticket booths; Mrs. W. O. Roenicke, publicity; Mrs. Norman Roulette, Club secretary; Mrs. Harold Conard, ticket chairman; and Mrs. Robert G. Thompson and Mrs. Harry Calloway, assistant ticket chairmen.

Mrs. Roulette has prepared the following history of the Society for Crippled Children of San Diego, Inc. and the stellar role played by the Thursday Club in founding and maintaining this worthwhile enterprise:

"Did you know that before 1932 there was no organized effort in San Diego for the care and treatment of crippled children? The children who could tolerate cold water were taken to Mission Bay or the beaches, undressed in cars and given supervised underwater exercises by a trained nurse. This type of treatment for charity patients was paid for by occasional donations from interested persons or organizations.

The Society for Crippled Children of San Diego County, Inc., was organized in 1932 and started with its plans for the present pool and day clinic in that year. In 1933 a campaign was outlined and the Thursday Club was asked to set up campaign headquarters and name a chairman from its club. The challenge was accepted and our then president, Mrs. Leonard Ellis, appointed Mrs. J. M. McColl to the responsible position.

"Office space on the mezzanine floor of the San Diego Hotel was donated by Mr. Sam Porter. The telephone company lent equipment and installed their service free, and many local business men lent office furnishings, typewriters, etc. It is interesting to recall that Mr. Art Linkletter, then with KGB, assisted Mrs. McColl with radio programs for the campaign.

"The depression did not prove to be a handicap and the project was popular from the beginning. A goal of $20,000 was set but nearly $25,000 was raised by civic and philanthropic subscription. The first large donation was made by the Women's Medical Auxiliary and the biggest contribution came from the Shriners. The P. T. A. made small sacks which the Junior Red Cross distributed throughout the city schools, and a sizeable sum was raised from the pennies saved in these sacks by the school children.

"The late summer of 1935 the ground was broken for the present pool and day clinic at 35th Street. From this beginning the services have expanded until an all-time high of 708 examinations at the free clinic and 5542 treatments were given this year.

"Through the years The Thursday Club has made numerous contributions to this subject. Large sums have been given by our Benevolence Department from our Autumn bridge teas, etc. However, two special benefits have been sponsored. The first was given in 1938 when Mrs. George Wilken appointed Mrs. Glen Gilpin chairman of a dance at Mission Beach. The second was given in 1941 when Mrs. Eugene Glenn named Mrs. J. M. McColl to head a benefit dance at Pacific Square. These two successful parties, combined, netted over $3500, the proceeds from which were used for equipment for the pool.

"Now, the need is for a Crippled Children's Orthopedic Hospital, and The Thursday Club is again ready to do its share. Mrs. Harold Curtis has appointed Mrs. Leonard Ellis general chairman of this special benefit committee for the fund. Once again familiar names are in the list for this major undertaking. Mr. Art Linkletter is one of these; this time, however, he will be the star and the inspiration for a capacity sellout at the Fox Theater May 26. That evening at 8 o'clock Mr. Linkletter will present his audience-participation radio show, "People Are Funny."

Uncle Sam Says

One of the fine old American customs is to begin a new year with a lot of resolutions. Some we keep. Others we make with the intention of breaking them to the delight of ourselves and friends. You're being a good American to resolve to do something or other from this day on until eternity. You're being a better, wiser American to make a solemn resolution to strengthen the future security of yourself and family. Resolve to put some of your income regularly into U. S. Savings Bonds, which pay $4 for every $3 invested in 10 years.
